REPORTS OF BOARDS

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

In closing this the second year of our quadrennium, we want to express our appreciation of your hearty co-operation. While we have not as yet reached what we had hoped for we have made some progress. Dr. Rawlings, representing the General Board, made an inspiring address at an anniversary and met with your Board and gave us much valuable assistance. The week of prayer has been changed from the first week in January to the week preceding Easter, and we beg our brethren to observe it. You can order the literature from the publishers to distribute among your people without cost.

The Sunday Schools under our discipline are missionary organizations, and we recommend that one Sunday in the month be set apart as a missionary day, and that the offering as far as possible be sent in as special, and not in the assessment.

The Board has fixed January the 10th, next, as the day of counsel with the Presiding Elders and other brethren, in Little Rock in order to plan for larger things, and more systematic work for the incoming year.

We urge that our collections be taken not later than the month of March, and that insofar as possible the assessments be sent to our treasurer not later than April 1st. The assessments form the base of our Missionary operations; hence we urge full collections in the assessments.

A number of our charges have taken specials and pray that a greater number will fall into the plan, and thus help us to swell our income for the General Board.

We recommend the appointment of T. P. Clark Conference Missionary Evangelist.

We suggest the every member campaign for all the claims in the early part of the year.

We urge our pastors to encourage the Epworth League to make substantial contributions to the African Mission, as they alone are carrying this work on now.

We nominate the following committee on evangelism: E. R. Steele, T. D. Scott, R. W. McKay, Frank Scott, P. C. Fletcher, James Thomas and T. P. Clark.

The Board elected Rev. Forney Hutchinson Conference Missionary Secretary and respectfully ask the Bishop to appoint him.

We congratulate the Conference upon the increased collections for both domestic and foreign missions.

We appropriate $4,220.00 to our Conference Missions; in addition the League Conference puts $500.00 at Dierks, which will make a total of $4,720.00.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:
Dear Brethren:—

We, your Board of Church Extension, respectfully submit the following report:

We are glad to report an increase in collections this year over last year to the amount of $640.00. The total amount collected this year is $4,967.00, against $4,327.00 last year. Even with this increase in collections we were not able to help all who applied, and were compelled to help only the most needy churches and to reduce the amount asked for in almost every case. If the full assessment had been paid we could have cared for every application.

We have no increase in our Conference Loan Fund this year, and we earnestly urge the members of this Conference to help us increase our loan fund. The Horace Jewell Loan Fund amounts to $200.00, and the R. N. Ross Loan Fund amounts to $47.75, making a total, with interest, of $285.32. Of this amount $150.00 has been loaned to the Hermitage parsonage, leaving a balance on hand available for loans of $135.32. We recommend that $100.00 be loaned to Mt. Carmel Church.

Dr. Sexton came before us and represented our Representative Church at Washington, D. C., and we have accepted an assessment of $2,000.00 to be paid by an assessment of $1,000.00 this year, and $1,000.00 next year, which assessment is to be collected by the presiding elder of each district as a special each year until the $2,000.00 is paid in full.

We wish to call special attention to the literature furnished, free of charge, by the General Board, and earnestly request our pastors and laymen to write for the same, and distribute it among our people.

We earnestly request everyone who may hereafter make application for help from this board, to see that each application is properly filled out, and every question answered in full, as this Board will not hereafter consider any application which is not in due form.

We have received from collections this year $4,967.00; one half of this amount goes to the General Board, which leaves $2,484.00 for our disposal, which we have appropriated as follows:

Buttram's Chapel	$ 50.00
Ebenezer	75.00
Lonsdale	100.00
Walnut Springs	200.00

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Dear Brethren:

Your Sunday School Board report as follows:

We have had the best year in the history of our work. Our treasurer reports that all expenses for the year have been paid in full, and half of last year's deficit has been paid. Our field secretary reports a splendid gain in the number of new schools, additional enrollment, and the organization of the schools according to the standard of efficiency. He has traveled eight thousand miles, reached 77 out of the 143 pastoral charges, and attended the various District meetings and other gatherings where Sunday School interests were under consideration. He has brought twelve schools up to the standard of efficiency, and has not been unmindful of the spiritual interest of the Sunday School, he having added over two hundred members to the church on profession of faith this year. We held seven district institutes throughout the Conference.

We had before us Dr. J. H. Reynolds, Mr. A. L. Dietrich, Dr. John W. Shackford, and Mr. John R. Pepper of the General Sunday School Board, all of whom rendered the Board valuable assistance in planning greater work. We had before us a communication from the General Sunday School Board recommending our setting aside the Second Sunday in March for raising a fund for the supplement of the endowment of a chair in Sunday School Pedagogy in Southern Methodist University. We are in hearty sympathy with this great work, but, owing to our local needs, we do not feel justified in attempting this work at present.

Recommendations.

We recommend the following for your adoption:

1. The cooperation of the Sunday Schools of our Conference with the Hendrix Board in carrying out the plans for Sunday School work at the Summer School for Ministers.

2. The setting aside of the Second Sunday in March to be observed as College Day in all the Sunday Schools of our Conference.

3. The moral support of our Sunday School workers in the plan of the Hendrix College Commissioners to endow a Chair of Sunday School Pedagogy in Hendrix College.

4. The strict observance of the law in our Discipline concerning the observance of Missionary Day and the distribution of missionary funds collected in the Sunday School.

5. The organization of the various districts.

6. The continuation of our present financial plan for the support of our work.

7. The reappointment of Rev. Clem Baker as Field Secretary.

In conclusion we wish to thank the presiding elders and pastors, as well as the superintendents of our Conference, for the generous support given us in our work last year, and urge their full cooperation in carrying out the greater plans for another year.

C. E. HAYES, Chairman,

R. L. CABE, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Dear Brethren:

We, your Epworth League Board, respectfully submit the following report:

We rejoice to report advance along all lines of the Epworth League work this year. In the beginning of the year we adopted as our slogan, "A League in every charge in the Conference." We have not quite reached this goal, but there has been a gratifying increase in the number of Leagues organized this year. With this encouragement we re-affirm our slogan, and trust we shall reach the goal by next Conference. From all reports the work of the Epworth League seems to be upon the hearts of our people as never before. We heartily commend the Epworth Era and the Arkansas Methodist to all our Leaguers. We have elected Rev. H. F.

Buhler as editor of the Epworth League page in the Arkansas Methodist for another year. Again we urge a more careful attention to the observance of Anniversary Day. This is of special importance in view of the larger work planned by the Board for another year. We heartily commend the action of the Epworth League Conference in its plan for the appropriation of five hundred dollars for home mission work in our own conference, and a like sum for foreign mission work in Africa.

Again we commend the interest of the Junior League to our workers as being not only a vital department of the League work but the very best preparation for the larger work of the Senior League and the Church itself.

Respectfully submitted,

H. F. BUHLER, Chairman,
C. N. BAKER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Number One.

We have given careful consideration to the memorial referred to us from the Monticello District Conference, relative to the appointment of a commission of seven to act with a like commission from the North Arkansas Conference, to consider the consolidation and correlation of all our educational interests in the state. We recommend that the appointment of such commission be deferred for the present.

We recommend that Dr. A. O. Evans be appointed Commissioner for Henderson-Brown College.

R. H. CANNON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Number Two.

Hendrix College.

While the report of Hendrix College shows gratifying progress and increasing power of that institution, we note with much concern the great need of the College for larger endowment and better equipment. Owing to the financial depression which has prevailed until recently it has not been possible thus far to close out the campaign for the collection of $400,000.00. But now by every token the time is ripe for the speedy conclusion of this worthy and noble task. We call upon our preachers and people everywhere to give prompt, hearty and liberal support to this most important movement that it may be speedily consummated.

We recommend that Dr. James Thomas be reappointed as Commissioner of the College and that Rev. H. F. Buhler be appointed as his assistant.

To fill the vacancies in the Board of Trustees we recommend the following:

Hon. George W. Donaghey, 1916-1922.

Dr. P. C. Fletcher, 1916-1922.

Summer School for Ministers and Sunday School Institute.

It is with pleasure that we note the increasing usefulness of the Summer School for Ministers and Christian Workers. We urge our preachers and christian workers to secure the benefits of this school.

We call special attention to the fact that the General Sunday School Board has arranged to hold a two days' institute in connection with the session of the school for 1917. This institute will be held for the benefit of Sunday School Teachers, Officers, as well as our preachers.

The suggestion of the Executive Committee, namely: that the fee of two dollars heretofore charged for admission to the Summer School be abolished, meets our hearty approval.

Ministerial Education.

We call upon the presiding elders and pastors to give special attention to the following statement in the Discipline, paragraph 731:—"All ministerial candidates are strongly urged before entering the traveling connection, to secure, if possible, thorough collegiate and theological training." We commend most heartily the plan now being operated in some places of Sunday Schools, Adult Bible Classes, and individuals aiding candidates to secure an education; and urge our presiding elders and pastors to bring before the Sunday Schools, congregations and individuals this work, as a fruitful field of service.

Assessments.

We recommend the following assessments for the ensuing year:

General Conference Board of Education.....	$2,185.00
Hendrix College	2,000.00
Henderson-Brown College	2,000.00
Galloway College	2,000.00
Summer School for Ministers.....	700.00
Incidental expenses of the Board of Education.....	200.00

Total$9,085.00

Respectfully submitted,
STONEWALL ANDERSON, Ch.,
R. H. CANNON, Sec'y.

Joint Commission.

Whereas there are educational questions in which the Little Rock Conference and the North Arkansas Conference are jointly interested, and whereas these questions can be properly considered only by a joint commission, therefore be it resolved:

1. That a commission of nine members of this Conference be appointed by the Bishop.

2. That the North Arkansas Conference be requested at their present session to appoint a similar commission.

3. That the duty of the joint commission thus constituted shall be to study carefully our educational interests of common concern to the two conferences, and to report its findings and recommendations to the next session of the conferences. The joint commission is furthermore empowered to adjust any matters of minor importance that may call for action during the conference year.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Report No. 3.

Henderson-Brown College.

The president reports a gratifying increase in the enrollment and in receipts from tuition and fees over last year. While the efforts put forth during the year to secure funds for the college did not succeed as well as we hoped, still much benefit to the college was realized. We recommend that the campaign to secure a sufficient sum to liquidate all the indebtedness of the college and to bring the endowment up to $100,000.00 be continued; and we endorse the plan of the trustees to secure this sum.

As members of the Board of Trustees we recommend the election of the following, to succeed themselves: R. B. F. Key, Rev. T. D. Scott, Rev. J. A. Sage, Rev. A. Turrentine, and to succeed A. C. Graves, Mr. H. C. Crouch.

Galloway College.

The report of Galloway College shows a large increase in attendance over last year. The president says: "We were compelled to turn away more than thirty girls because of lack of room, and our agent was taken out of the field in August." The trustees report progress on the part of the endowment campaign. We recommend the continuance of the campaign according to the plans of the trustees, and that Rev. W. C. Watson be re-appointed as Commissioner.

Southern Methodist University.

We have given careful attention to the report of the special educational commission and of the trustees of Southern Methodist University.

The visit to the Conference of Dr. Hoyt M. Dobbs, Dean of the School of Theology, was greatly enjoyed. He came before the Board of Education, addressed the Conference in session, and delivered the address at the educational anniversary. His services for the University were highly appreciated.

With great pleasure we note the progress which our two connectional Universities have made during the year. It is specially gratifying to us that the first year of Southern Methodist University was most successful. According to the Commission's report the University now has assets to the amount of $2,650,000.00. The enrollment in all departments last year was 706. Of this number 90 were ministerial and theological students.

The election by the special educational commission of Rev. J. L. Cannon as a trustee of the University meets our decided approval.

We are in hearty agreement with the suggestion of the Commission that the two conferences in Arkansas unite to secure funds for the endowment of a chair in the School of Theology. We doubt the wisdom of undertaking to raise such sum while the campaigns (in the midst of which we find ourselves) for securing funds with which to relieve our Conference schools from debt and embarrassment are under way. However, as soon as these campaigns shall have been completed, it should be no difficult task to secure from the Methodists of the State fifty or sixty thousand dollars for the endowment of a Chair of Theology; and to the accomplishment of this task we shall give our hearty support.

We re-affirm our statements of a year ago; namely, "We greatly rejoice in the splendid beginning which the University has made, and believe profoundly in the success of its future; and we do hereby pledge the Commission our sincere and hearty support of the University as a connectional institution. We gladly direct to Southern Methodist University all genuine University patronage within our bounds, and specially do we direct all our young ministers to pursue their distinctively theological studies there."

We recommend that Rev. J. L. Cannon and Rev. Stonewall Anderson be authorized to represent this Conference in the Educational Conference called by the Commission to be held April 4th and 5th, 1917, at Dallas.

General Conference Board of Education.

We had before us the reports of the Corresponding Secretary and the Superintendent of the Department of Ministerial Supply and training.

We urge all undergraduates to pursue their studies in the Correspondence School. We ratify the action of the General Board of Education to the effect that hereafter all requests for matriculation in the Correspondence School shall be accompanied with five dollars in cash of the fee and a promissory note endorsed by the Conference Board for the remaining five dollars. We therefore recommend that the Board of Education be authorized to advance five dollars in cash to any undergraduate who desires to take the correspondence course, and who himself is not able to pay the fee, and to endorse his note for the rest—applications for such aid to be made to the Secretary of the Board of Education, Rev. R. H. Cannon.

We call the attention of our preachers and people to the helpful and abundant literature published by our General Board of Education. In this connection we call attention also to the action of the Sunday School Board in setting apart one Sunday in the year as "College Day." A proper observance of this day will be of great benefit both to our Sunday Schools and to our Colleges. Literature suitable for use in such exercises may be secured from the Board of Education, No. 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tennessee

Recommendations.

1. That the sale of Mena Academy to be confirmed.

2. That Rev. S. R. Twitty be appointed Conference Secretary of Education; and that he be authorized to attend the Conference for Education held by our General Conference Board during the year 1917,—the expenses of such attendance being met by your Conference Board of Education.

3. That the following appointments be made: Dr. J. M. Workman, President of Henderson-Brown College; Rev. C. J. Green, Professor in Hendrix College; student in Emory University, J. A. Sage, Jr.

Standing Assessments.

In addition to the assessments assumed and made by the Little Rock Conference each year for the general and the conference activities of the church, the conference has assumed or made the following standing assessments:

1. For conference claimants, ten per cent of the pastor's salary.
2. For the Superannuate Endowment fund, one per cent of the pastor's salary.
3. For the American Bible Society, two cents for each member of the church.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

We, your Bible Society Board, report the best year in the history of the American Bible Society. 1916 marks the conclusion of one hundred years of service for the society. The society has published the Holy Scriptures in 150 different languages during this time, making an average of $1\frac{1}{2}$ new languages mastered every year.

During this time the society has sent out 117,500,000 volumes of the Bible. Seven and a half million volumes were sent out last year.

The most engaging work of the board projected this year is the placing of a New Testament in the hands of every soldier and sailor in the armies of our country. Among the boys along the border of Mexico the board has already distributed 1,500 copies of these Testaments at a cost of $6,000.00, and the work is just begun. The Board found that not more than fifty percent of our army and navy was supplied with Bibles at all.

But we are informed that the work of supplying these bibles to our soldiers must stop, or the churches must come to the help of the Bible Society with prompt financial support.

We suggest, therefore, in view of this imperative need, that the second Sunday in January be observed as Army Testament Day. At this time let collections be taken for the purpose of supplying our soldiers with bibles.

The following outline of the work done by the Southwestern Agency during the past year is highly gratifying. They have employed fifteen Colporteurs. These have spent 2754 days in service. They have visited 947 different towns, and 57,252 different homes. 16,522 of these homes were found to be destitute of the bible altogether. The Southwestern Agency alone distributed 103,993 volumes last year, making an increase of 10,675 over any former record.

We had before us a communication from the Gideons of our State, and note with pleasure the magnificent work they are doing in placing bibles in hotels and other public buildings.

We are glad to announce that the Bible Society has established a depository in Little Rock, where our people may obtain bibles at prices far below those which obtain elsewhere.

A fact of missionary value developed by the activities of our Southwestern Agency the past year is found in the record that we now have in the territory covered by the agency—

240,000 French speaking people,
90,000 Italians,
300,000 Germans,
100,000 Bohemians,
450,000 Mexicans,
60,000 Scandinavians,
100,000 American Indians, and
25,000 of other nationalities.

Never has there been such a demand for bibles in the history of the world. Voltaire in his life-time predicted that within his generation the bible would be neglected and forgotten, if not destroyed from the earth. But now, far removed from his day, the Bible Society has actually purchased the very building in which the old skeptic spoke, and filled it from floor to ceiling with bibles which blaze in awful mockery of the false prophet. On with the bible to the ends of the earth, but let every land be filled with the song of its holy message.

We recommend that A. T. Clanton be elected to take the place of U. C. Barnett on the Bible Board, that M. B. Sigler be elected to take the place of J. N. McKay, that A. C. Rogers be elected to take the place of Dr. H. M. Russell, that Paul Q. Rorie be elected to take the place of J. P. Plummer, that R. L. Duckworth be elected to take the place of E. R. Robinson.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. CANNON, Chairman,
J. W. BERRY, Secretary.

REPORT OF METHODIST ORPHANAGE BOARD.

Your Committee on the Arkansas Methodist Orphanage respectfully report that we are thankful for the good statement made by the Board of Trustees which is as follows:

"During the past year we had some sickness and some interruptions in our work but the Lord has overruled it all to our good, as we verily believe.

On February 1, Mrs. M. L. Bonner resigned as Matron and the place was filled by Mrs. L. D. Litts. In February, the Executive Committee engaged the Rev. J. R. Sanders and wife, he as Superintendent and she as Assistant Matron. Brother Sanders soon found that he was not strong enough physically to fill the place and resigned the middle of June. The internal affairs of the Home were never in better shape.

At the close of last year, Sept. 30, 1915, there were 31 children in the Home. During the past year we received 26, placed in good homes 21, and 1 died, leaving 35 in the Home, Sept. 30, 1916. We received more children this year and have more in the Home now than any previous year. We received all told, since the organization of th Home, 294 children.

Brother Thornburgh expended, from the special fund collected by him, during the year, $2,316.26. This makes $37,317.56 collected by him and invested in the Institution. About $34,000 has been spent on the building and grounds and the balance in furniture, etc.

We are very sorry to report that the funds provided for the running expenses of the institution were exhausted in July and we have been borrowing on personal endorsement money to run the Home since that time. The assessment was made for the Institution ten years ago when we only had twelve children in the Home and it has only been increased 25 per cent. We now have 35 children, which is 300 per cent increase, and everything that is consumed is very much higher in price than when the estimate was made. It will be necessary for this Conference to add $500 to the assessment for the Orphanage.

Respectfully submitted,

G. H. KIMBALL, Secretary."

Your Committee heartily recommends Brother Thornburgh for the good work he has done and is still doing for the Orphanage.

In view of the fact that it is absolutely necessary to increase the assessment for the running expenses of the Home, we therefore recommend that the Conference assess five hundred dollars additional, making three thousand to be distributed as follows:

Arkadelphia District	$ 375.00
Camden District	455.00
Little Rock District	585.00
Monticello District	450.00
Pine Bluff District	425.00
Prescott District	340.00
Texarkana District	370.00

$3,000.00

Respectfully submitted,

T. O. RORIE, Chairman,

R. A. McCLINTOCK, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:
Dear Brethren:

We, the Committee on Publishing Interests, beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with pleasure that the total increase in the sales of our Publishing House, over those of last year, amount to nearly $37,000.00. We heartily commend the able manner in which our Methodist Review, Christian Advocate, Epworth Era, Missionary Voice, and our Sunday School publications are edited. We regret that the first three periodicals mentioned are found to run at a financial loss to the church; and trust that our preachers and people may put forth a united and loyal effort to so increase the circulation of said publications as to wipe out these annual deficits.

We have received from Dr. A. C. Millar a detailed statement of the affairs of the Arkansas Methodist, and the management of the same. There is a deficit in the running expenses of this year of $2,500.00; but there are assets in unpaid subscriptions amounting to $8,000.00.

When nearly all the other papers of our Church, and many other Church publications are raising prices of subscriptions, or reducing the size and using inferior quality of paper, we congratulate the management of the Methodist upon the splendid mechanical makeup of our Conference Organ, and the fact that it is still held at the old price, and shows so small a deficit. In this respect it is easily the equal of any Conference Organ in the Church.

Dr. Millar's statement shows beyond question that the paper is being produced at a minimum cost, and is producing the maximum of income that can be had without a larger circulation.

The paper is, we think, editorially stronger than ever before. It is sane, vigorous, sprightly and refreshing. Probably no single agency in the state did nearly so much during the recent campaign in the interest of prohibition, and for the defeat of the infamous Act. No. 2, as did the Arkansas Methodist.

Resolved: First—That we hereby heartily commend the editorial policy of Dr. Millar, and express our appreciation of his excellent work.

And, whereas it appears clearly that if we can increase the circulation to 15,000 and make reasonably close collections, the paper can maintain its present standard of excellence without increasing the price, therefore be it

Resolved: Second—That we undertake to secure in our Conference during the coming year 3,000 new subscribers; that we observe the month of February as a special campaign month for securing the three thousand new subscribers.

Resolved. Third—That the said campaign be placed under the general direction of Dr. A. C. Millar, with full power to work out his own plans, and we hereby pledge him our loyal and earnest cooperation in the execution of his plans.

Resolved: Fourth—That we urge all our people to take, and read, the Arkansas Methodist.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. RICHARDSON, Chairman,
A. M. SHAW, Secretary.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your committee on District Journals, submit the following report:

Little Rock District Journal:—This journal is in splendid shape, with the exception of crowding of lines of writing in one place.

Monticello District Journal:—This journal has been well kept and is neat.

Texarkana District Journal:—No marginal references. The term "adopted" is used instead of "approved." The minutes were not signed by either the presiding elder or secretary.

Pine Bluff District Journal:—The term "adopted" is used where "approved" should have been used.

Camden District Journal:—This journal has been neatly and correctly kept.

Arkadelphia District Journal:—This journal has been well kept with the exception of a few ink splotches and erasures.

Prescott District Journal:—This journal is a model of neatness.

O. H. KEADLE, Chairman,

L. E. N. HUNDLEY, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance respectfully recommends the hearty endorsement of the work of the Anti-Saloon League, and in renewing our relations to it, nominate B. A. Few, A. C. Millar, M. N. Waldrip, J. H. Glass, and George Thornburgh to be Trustees on the State League Board.

We have great cause for rejoicing on account of the results of the recent election. Michigan, Nebraska, South Dakota and Montana, were added to the ranks of the dry states by constitutional amendment. Prohibition Governors were elected in Florida, Utah and a popular vote for the abolition of the liquor traffic in the Territory of Alaska were all the fruit of the election of November 7th. And in Washington, Oregon, Colorado and Arkansas, states already under prohibition, propositions were made to modify, if not nullify, the effect of prohibition and in all these cases the efforts were defeated. In two wet states that voted on the question, Missouri and California, prohibition was defeated but in Missouri only the enormous vote of the brewery city of St. Louis saved the State from the dry column, as there was a majority of 14,000 for prohibition in the State outside of St. Louis. In California, the majority against prohibition was reduced more than one-half what it was the preceding election. It is worth noting that Michigan, Nebraska and South Dakota tried prohibition many years ago and repealed it. That they have adopted prohibition again means that they have tried both and will stick to prohibition. In Utah the legislature a year ago passed a prohibition law but the republican governor vetoed it. This year the democratic candidate for governor made his campaign on a pledge to approve such a law, and he was elected with a prohibition legislature. Florida nominated an anti-prohibition democratic candidate for governor. A dry candidate was named on an independent ticket and was elected. At this action very few good democrats are shedding tears. Detroit, one of the largest cities in the country, is now the largest dry city in the United States.

In our own beloved Arkansas, one of the greatest victories we have ever had, was gained in the defeat of Act No. 2. This, we think, forever settles the question of prohibition in this state.

"Let the people rule" was a boomerang, for the people did rule by a majority of fifty thousand to the glory of God, the good of humanity, and the discomfiture of the liquorites.

For this great victory much credit is due the active leadership of our preachers and the loyalty of our people. We pay especial tribute to Dr. A. C. Millar for his able editorials in the Arkansas Methodist, and for his vigorous personal campaign, and to the Baptist Advance and the Arkansas Gazette for their great service, also to the press of the state generally.

We have now twenty-three dry states, to which will be added Florida and Utah in the early part of the next year, making more than half the states dry.

The battle-cry of a united and victorious army is now for a saloonless nation. The liquor traffic is cornered in half a dozen great cities of the country. The traffic is so inherently lawless that it cannot long exist even in these places. The time has come for the final settlement of this proposition in the United States. The member of Congress or of the United States Senate, who opposes the submission of the joint prohibition resolution to the states for ratification has a short political career before him. The one thing that the American people have made up their minds to is the absolute extinction of the beverage-liquor traffic. And when the amendment is submitted we believe that Arkansas will be first among the states to ratify it.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE THORNBURGH, Chairman.

Whereas, the one man who is due the greatest credit for this splendid achievement is Col. George Thornburgh, the intrepid leader of the temperance forces of Arkansas, a man who has given the best years of his rich and unselfish life to warfare against the common enemy of our homes and the Church of the Living God, therefore be it

Resolved, that this conference hereby express its great appreciation of the great work of Brother Thornburgh in leading our people to so decisive victory, and that we assure him anew of our sincere love and admiration.

MEMOIRS

MRS. IDA JENKINS.

Mrs. Ida Jenkins, wife of the lamented Rev. J. J. Jenkins, and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garner, was born in Darlington, Dist., South Carolina, May 13, 1858. The family came to Arkansas in her early childhood, settling near Austin; where at the age of thirteen years she professed faith in Christ, and joined the Methodist Church, South. Her parents were teachers of first quality, so she grew up in the very best educational atmosphere, becoming a teacher herself of rare ability. While her parents were conducting a school of high order at Rock Springs Church, Plantersville P. O., in Drew County, she met Rev. J. J. Jenkins, and on Nov. 24th, 1881, they were married, Rev. H. D. McKinnon, Presiding Elder of the Monticello District, officiating. To this union were born five children; one went to the home in Heaven in infancy, leaving four now living, who are doing well. May, Alvin and Justine are married, Miss Alice ranks with the best teachers of our state.

The Conference is fully acquainted with the facts relating to dear Sister Jenkins' long years of suffering, having been an invalid for twenty-five years, living during these years of suffering with her aged father, at Stephens, where on Sunday morning, March 19, 1916, her spirit returned unto God, and we laid her body to rest beside her husband's in the cemetery at Stephens Monday morning, March 20, 1916. How much she suffered no one can imagine. The writer of this sketch knew the family at Rock Springs, having attended the school there, and ever since keeping in close relationship with this family, and also being their pastor at Stephens, 1898-99. As a Conference we will continue to be much concerned in the success of their children left among us.

W. C. HILLIARD.

MARY A. CANFIELD.

Mary A. Canfield, daughter of X. W. and A. C. Riley, was born March 6, 1882, near Beuna Vista, Ark., and died September 9, 1916, at the home of her parents at Buena Vista. She was converted in childhood, joined the M. E. Church, South, at old Ten Springs Church, on what was then known as Camden Circuit, in 1895, under the pastorate of Rev. F. R. Canfield, whom she married in 1897. To this union were born five children, two boys and three girls. The boys died in early infancy; the three girls, Benegene, Katie May and Willie Rae, live to mourn the loss of their mother. Besides her husband and these three girls, she leaves a father, mother and six brothers, W. J., M. L., Robert, Roy, G. F., H. N. and F. C. Riley, to mourn her loss. In her last hours she spoke of the future and talked of the better land, and said Beulah land, and died in great peace. She attended church, Sunday school and prayer meeting. To all these she was faithful. Her testimony was bright and clear. Her consecrated life in the home is one that will do to follow. She was confined to her bed for nine weeks. She was buried in the grave yard at Ten Springs, Sunday, September 10. Rev. R. H. Cannon of Stephens conducted the funeral services at the old church where she was converted and joined the church. This is the statement sent me by her husband, and I want to add my testimony to the worth of this good woman. She loved her church and her home and family, was kind and gentle, a true mother, wife and Christian. It was my privilege to be in her home often, and it was a great privilege to have the pleasure of knowing her. A good woman has gone to her reward.—J. A. BIGGS.

BISHOP ALPHEUS WATERS WILSON.

Our great senior Bishop is ascended, having died at his home in Baltimore, Md., November 21, aged almost eighty-three. The son of Rev. Norval Wilson, he was born at Baltimore, February 5, 1834; educated at Columbian University; married, March 4, 1857, to Susan B. Lipscomb; received on trial in 1853 into the Baltimore Conference of the Northern Methodist Church; later was a member of the majority of the Baltimore Conference, who because of unredeemed pledges became independent of the Northern General Conference; and in 1866 came into the Southern Church. He thus had the unusual distinction of belonging to only one annual conference, but was in three different autonomous organizations. He was elected Missionary Secretary in 1878, and Bishop in 1882. As Missionary Secretary he laid deep foundations and prepared our forces for modern missionary work by getting missions on the conscience of the Church. As Bishop he visited all our mission fields and ever had the cause on his heart. He was the author of a volume on "Missions" and of the Cole Lectures, "Witnesses for Christ." Bishop Wilson was one of the greatest preachers in America. He had none of the arts of the orator; his delivery was quiet and unimpassioned; but he had a phenomenal insight into the meaning of Scripture and such power of organizing his thought that he was able to present truth in its strongest form. His thinking was profound and his style massive. Simple and modest, almost shrinking in manner, he was regarded as cold, but to those who learned to know him he was tender and confiding. His logical mind and marvelous memory made him a great presiding officer, and his firmness coupled with reasonableness enabled him to make appointments with satisfaction. He never pushed himself nor his opinions on the Church, but in times of crisis he was ready and fearless in advocacy and defense. At the time of his death the senior Bishop of all Methodism and chairman of our Commission on Unification, he would have been the Nestor of the Joint Commission. The Church and his colleagues leaned upon him and trusted him implicitly. His influence will endure. We are rich in his works and character, and shall long mourn his departure.—A. C. MILLAR.

DR. C. C. GODDEN.

Charles Conway Godden, son of Robert and Maria Celia Godden, was born in Morristown, New Jersey, July 23rd, 1836, and died at the home of his daughter in Searcy, Arkansas, December 21st, 1915. He is survived by three children, Charles C. Jr., of Devine, Texas; Mrs. Floyd Thompson, of Texarkana, Arkansas, and Mrs. Emmett Snipes, of Searcy, Arkansas.

His parents moved to Indiana, where he grew to young manhood. He had the advantage of the common, country schools, and later attended Crawfordsville College of Crawfordsville, Indiana. He came to Arkansas, at the age of twenty-one from Mississippi. He began the practice of Law in 1858 at DeWitt, Arkansas, associated with Col. Jordan Gibson. During the war between the states he served four years for the Confederacy. After the war he returned to DeWitt, and formed a law partnership with Col. Halliburton, where he soon attained to a large and lucrative practice. He served as prosecuting attorney for a time, but he never sought official position again. In the midst of his successful legal career he was converted, in a meeting conducted by Dr. Andrew Hunter, assisted by Dr. A. R. Winfield. The meeting was held in the Court House at DeWitt. His conversion was one of those marvelous triumphs of redeeming grace that has marked the progress of the gospel since the day of Paul's journey on the Damascus road. He was literally made a new creature in Christ. To him it was ever afterwards the most wonderful event of his life. He always spoke of it with humility and awe. His sense of sin was deep and pungent, his consciousness of sin forgiven was to him the crowning evidence of a living Christ. Henceforth he knew Him and had sweet fellowship with Him. He had been reared a Presbyterian, and always cherished the greatest respect for that Church, often he spoke of the saintliness of his Presbyterian mother, but he joined the Methodist Church. Feeling the call to preach,—he conferred not with flesh and blood, but became obedient to the Heavenly Vision. He was admitted on trial in the Little Rock Conference in the fall of 1872, at Pine Bluff. Leaving a law practice that paid him thousands of dollars a year, he placed himself at the disposal of the church for any appointment that might be given him. His first charge was DeWitt Circuit, which he served for four years at a salary of four hundred and fifty dollars a year. For thirty-five years he received his appointments from the Church, serving on circuits, stations, districts, and as College President. He gave himself unreservedly to whatever came, with unstinted zeal, courageous faith, unselfish spirit and loyal devotion. His ambition was to serve. His ability and worth were soon recognized, and early in his career he became one of our most loved and trusted leaders, which he held to the end. He was recognized as one of our great preachers. He knew Christ as his Saviour, and he knew men. Out of the depths of his own experience he appealed to man's deepest needs. His message was frequently attended with great unction and spiritual power. His audience would be swayed by a mystic presence, the power of God would be felt, and men would be born again.

As a Presiding Elder, Dr. Godden was ideal. A great constructive leader, he quickened the life of the church in all its departments. He was a benediction to the preacher. He discovered and developed men. He had the gift of finding men who were called to preach. Encouraging, leading and pushing them out, he brought many men into our Conference, who but for his help might have been lost to us.

The last ten years of his active ministry he was President of Galloway College. At the time he took charge of it, Galloway College was one of the most difficult problems, and one of the heaviest burdens of our church in this state. He was at that age of life when men begin to slacken up and lighten their responsibilities, but at the call of his church, he undertook this heavy task with that same unselfish spirit, and heroic faith, that had always characterized him. The College was burdened with debt, and its very existence was threatened. But he faced the task with confidence, and by God's help he succeeded. He gathered around him a corps of helpers, and with them he straightened out its affairs, lifted its debt and made it one of the most popular schools of the state. When the buildings burned down, he never faltered, but girded himself to renewed vigor, and saw it rise from the ashes in greater strength and beauty. Just how much of toil and struggle and heart-ache there was in it for him and his noble wife, we can never know. They must have lived close to God, for the College life was always so beautiful. Brother and Sister Godden were always sunny-hearted and everybody was happy.

When Dr. Godden came to us, he had large possessions, and his opportunities for accumulating were alluring. He could have become one of the richest men in this state, but he died poor. From a human standpoint there is an element of pathos in it all, but in the light of God's word there is in it everything to strengthen our faith in God and men—God's men. As we review the past of the Little Rock Conference, C. C. Godden stands out on the plains of our history as a tower of strength, a chosen vessel, one of God's noblemen. But he never knew he was great. To himself he was always a sinner saved by grace.

T. D. SCOTT.

MARY ANN MENEFEE.

Mary Ann Menefee was born Sept. 25th, 1852, in Giles County, Tennessee. Her father's name was Jacob Pennington. He moved with his family to Arkansas before the war and settled in the western part of Clark County. Later the family moved to Arkadelphia, and here the subject of this sketch grew to womanhood. While she was a small girl, her mother died, and her father married again. Her stepmother was a Presbyterian, and she joined that church at an early date.

She was married Oct. 12th, 1870, to J. J. Menefee, then an exhorter in the Methodist church. The following summer she united with the Methodist church. She became the mother of five children, all girls, three of whom died between the ages of four and fourteen.

Her husband, having in the meantime entered the ministry, joined the Little Rock Conference in the fall of 1889, and henceforth she became his traveling companion. She went with him to his appointments when domestic duties did not prevent. They served, in all, fifteen pastoral charges, spending from one to four years on each. One charge, namely, the Lono circuit, they served the second time. She became thoroughly identified with the itineracy and was in perfect sympathy with her husband's work.

Sister Menefee was a consecrated christian, a faithful wife, and a devoted mother. As a christian she was exemplary, modest, and patient. She belonged to that gentle, quiet type of christian women, rather than the more enthusiastic and aggressive type. The life she lived bore constant testimony to her faith in God and the interest she felt in His cause.

As a wife she was affectionate, thoughtful, and accommodating. When her husband would leave for his appointment, if she could not accompany him, she would usually walk with him to his buggy and there bid him goodbye. Upon his return she would often meet him as he would drive up to the front gate, take his grip, or assist him in unhitching their faithful roadster. She was a neat and frugal housekeeper, who knew how to make the parsonage, however humble the structure, attractive and homelike, and at the same time how to help her husband keep out of debt. The floors of the parsonage were kept bright, the beds clean and comfortable, and the dining-room and kitchen (often combined in one) inviting. The table she spread for her family and friends was appetizing and wholesome and showed her skill and resourcefulness in a capacity that counts for much in the home of a Methodist preacher.

Sister Menefee was a fond, loving and kind mother. She was just the kind of woman to set an example for girls. By her womanly demeanor and wise counsel she won the confidence of her daughters who loved and respected her. Her children and grandchildren bore in them the marks of her intelligence and christian refinement.

For forty-six years this good woman walked by the side of her husband. The last twenty-six years of this period were spent in the itinerant ministry. At the last session of the conference they were returned to the Lacy circuit for their fourth year. Soon after her husband's return from the conference session at Monticello she fell a victim to lagrippe which had prostrated the people by the thousands with its malignant scourge, and on January 17th, 1916, she quietly fell asleep, and was laid to rest in the neighboring cemetery.—W. C. DAVIDSON.
